That same night, some shepherds were looking after their sheep on the hills nearby.

All was calm, when suddenly an angel appeared to them. The bright light of God's glory shone all around. They were dazzled and amazed.

"Do not be afraid," said the angel. "I bring you good news! God's true king has been born in Bethlehem. You'll find him wrapped safely and lying in a manger!"

Then the whole sky was full of angels, singing praises to God.

Far away in the East, some wise men were studying the stars.

When a bright new star appeared in the night sky, they realized that a new king had been born.

"Let's go and find this new-born king and worship him," the wise men said.

They rode on their camels, following the bright star all the way to the city of Jerusalem.
