A riveting, poignant account of two young women—the author's own mother-in-law, and her sister—and their miraculous escape from the murderous authorities of Vichy France.

Tracking the Jews : Ecumenical Protestants, Conversion, and the Holocaust
Carolyn Sanzenbacher

Manchester University Press (IPS UK) | 9781526161291

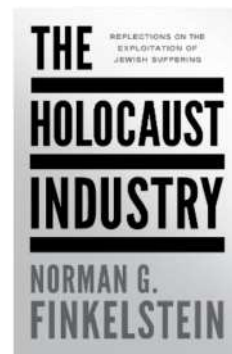

£25.00 | HB | 360.pp | May 2024

This book reconstructs an unprecedented initiative for world evangelisation of Jews in the years before, during and after the Nazi Holocaust. It reveals the ways in which a broad toleration of traditional anti-Judaism allowed, under a banner of Christian benevolence, a transnational discourse of antisemitic ideas masked in conversionary language. -- .

Walter S. Zapotoczny Jr

Fonthill Media Ltd (Macmillan Distribution (MDL)) | 9781781558805

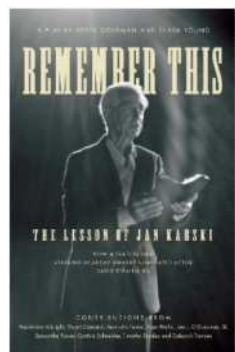

£25.00 | HB | 208.pp | November 2022

By October 1942 the Hlinka Guard had overseen the deportation of some 60,000 Slovak Jews. During the 1944-1945 German occupation, another 13,500 Jews were deported and 5,000 imprisoned. Many of the Jews ended up at the Auschwitz Birkenau Concentration and Extermination Camp. Not much is known about the Hlinka Guard. This book tells their story.

Remember This : The Lesson of Jan Karski
Clark Young

Georgetown University Press (IPS UK) | 9781647121686

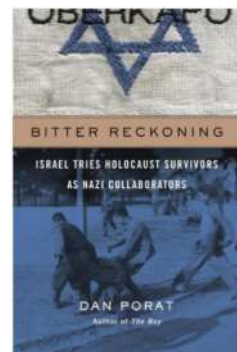

£16.00 | PB | 144.pp | November 2021

Remember This tells the story of Holocaust witness Jan Karski, who risked his life to carry reports from war-torn Poland to the Allied nations and Oval Office. This play carries forward his legacy of bearing witness so others may follow his example to share the truth and fight for human rights.

Bitter Reckoning : Israel Tries Holocaust Survivors as Nazi Collaborators

Dan Porat

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674988149

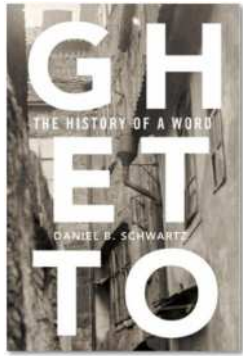

£24.95 | HB | 288.pp | October 2019

Digging into newly declassified archives, Dan Porat unearths the story of Jews persecuted by the State of Israel for Nazi collaboration. Over time courts and the public came to see Jewish ghetto administrators or kapos as tragic figures. Rigorous yet humane, Porat invites us to rethink ideas about victimhood, justice, and collective memory.

Ghetto : The History of a Word

Daniel B. Schwartz

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674737532

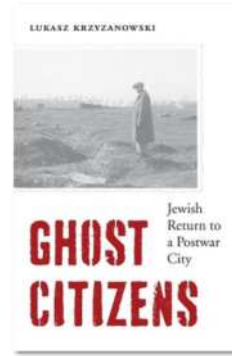

£31.95 | HB | 288.pp | September 2019

Few words are as ideologically charged as ghetto, a term that has described legally segregated Jewish quarters, dense immigrant enclaves, Nazi holding pens, and black neighborhoods in the United States. Daniel B. Schwartz reveals how the history of ghettos is tied up with struggle and argument over the slippery meaning of a word.

Ghost Citizens : Jewish Return to a Postwar City

Lukasz Krzyzanowski

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674984660

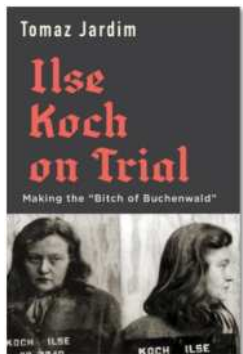

£31.95 | HB | 352.pp | June 2020

Few Polish Holocaust survivors went home after liberation. Lukasz Krzyzanowski recounts the story of a group who did—the returnees of Radom. Bureaucrats tried to hold back their property and possessions to prop up the ruined state. And the returnees faced pogroms and even gangs of fellow Jews. Against it all, they struggled to rebuild their lives.

Ilse Koch on Trial : Making the “Bitch of Buchenwald”

Tomaz Jardim

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674249189

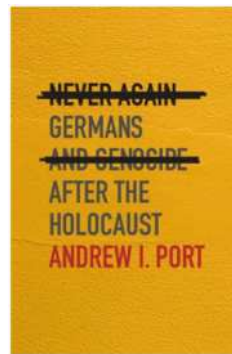

£29.95 | HB | 368.pp | April 2023

After WWII, Ilse Koch became known worldwide as the “Bitch of Buchenwald.” She was assuredly guilty of atrocities, but the most sensational crimes ascribed to her by prosecutors and newspapers went unproven. Tomaz Jardim reveals how Koch’s perceived betrayal of womanhood sealed her fate as a scapegoat for a society seeking absolution.

Never Again : Germans and Genocide after the Holocaust

Andrew I. Port

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674275225

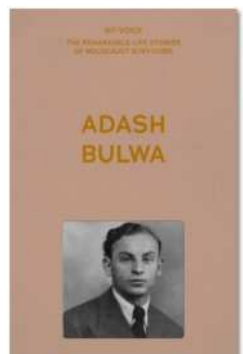

£29.95 | HB | 416.pp | May 2023

What do Germans mean when they say “never again”? Andrew Port examines German responses to the genocides in Cambodia, Bosnia, and Rwanda, showing how these events transformed the meaning of the Holocaust in Germany, inspired partial remilitarization, and changed the country’s relationship to refugees fleeing war-torn regions.
