

Latin Pastoral Poetry

Andrea Navagero

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674298378

£29.95 | Hardback | 528pp. | March 2025

Andrea Navagero (1483–1529), among the principal poets of Venice, pioneered the Renaissance pastoral epigram genre. Marcantonio Flaminio (1498–1550), though now better known for his controversial religious writings, began his career as a poet. Latin Pastoral Poetry is the first volume to combine their poetry alongside authoritative Latin texts.

900 Conclusions

Giovanni Pico della Mirandola

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674298910

£29.95 | Hardback | 688pp. | March 2025

Giovanni Pico della Mirandola, the most famous philosopher of the Italian Renaissance, urged Christians to save their souls with Jewish mysticism—Kabbalah—offering to debate anyone in Italy. Nine Hundred Conclusions offers a definitive new critical edition and translation of the Latin and commentary on Pico's theses that were denounced by the Pope.

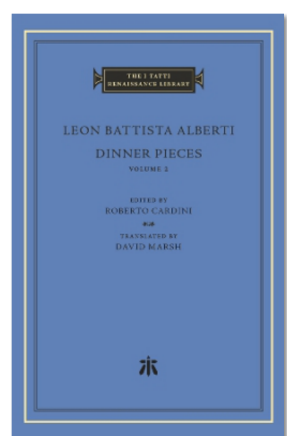

On Leaders and Tyrants

Poggio Bracciolini

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674297128

£29.95 | Hardback | 624pp. | September 2024

On Leaders and Tyrants contains works, the majority by Renaissance humanist Poggio Bracciolini, relating to a debate on Scipio Africanus and Julius Caesar that discusses tyranny, military glory, and leadership qualities. This volume contains a fresh edition of the Latin texts and the first complete translation of the controversy into English.

Dinner Pieces : Volume 2

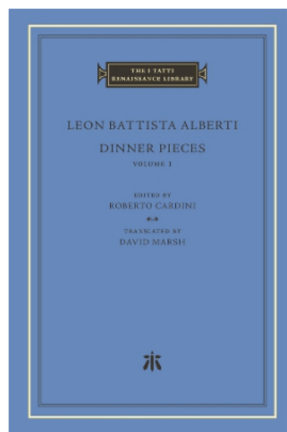

Leon Battista Alberti

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674295759

£29.95 | Hardback | 368pp. | September 2024

A collection of stories meant to be read while dining and drinking, the Dinner Pieces, or Intercenales, are among Alberti's most innovative works. They constitute an important monument in the history of comic writing and cover topics from politics to the arts to love. This edition presents a new translation and an authoritative Latin text.

Dinner Pieces : Volume 1

Leon Battista Alberti

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674295742

£29.95 | Hardback | 400pp. | September 2024

A collection of stories meant to be read while dining and drinking, the Dinner Pieces, or Intercenales, are among Alberti's most innovative works. They constitute an important monument in the history of comic writing and cover topics from politics to the arts to love. This edition presents a new translation and an authoritative Latin text.

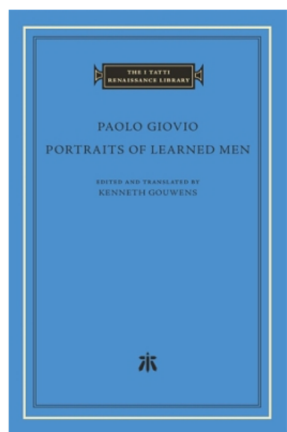

Biographical and Autobiographical Writings

Leon Battista Alberti

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674292680

£29.95 | Hardback | 384pp. | September 2023

Leon Battista Alberti was among the most famous figures of the Italian Renaissance. Biographical and Autobiographical Writings includes On the Advantages and Disadvantages of Literature, The Life of St. Potitus, My Dog, My Life, and The Fly. It presents the first collected English translations of these works and an authoritative Latin text.

Portraits of Learned Men

Paolo Giovio

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674290150

£29.95 | Hardback | 688pp. | April 2023

Paolo Giovio's Portraits of Learned Men provides brief biographies of 146 men from Dante, Petrarch, and Boccaccio to Erasmus, Thomas More, and Juan Luis Vives that were meant to accompany portraits in a museum of great figures in modern history. This volume contains a fresh edition of the Latin text and a new, more complete English translation.

Eclogues. Garden of the Hesperides

Giovanni Gioviano Pontano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674274099

£29.95 | Hardback | 320pp. | October 2022

Giovanni Gioviano Pontano was one of the great scholar-poets of the Renaissance as well as a leading statesman. Eclogues and Garden of the Hesperides, both broadly inspired by Virgil, might be considered Pontano's love songs to the landscapes of Naples. This volume features the first published translations of both works into English.

Life of Giovanni Pico della Mirandola. Oration

Gianfrancesco Pico della Mirandola

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674023420

£29.95 | Hardback| 432pp. | March 2022

The Oration by philosopher Giovanni Pico della Mirandola (1463–1494), to which later editors added the subtitle On the Dignity of Man, is the most famous text written in Italy at the height of the Renaissance. The Life of Giovanni by Gianfrancesco Pico, his nephew, is the only contemporary account of the philosopher’s brief and astonishing career.

Dialogues : Volume 3 : Aegidius and Asinus

Giovanni Gioviano Pontano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674248465

£29.95 | Hardback| 288pp. | September 2020

Dialogues, Volume 3 completes the I Tatti edition of Pontano’s five surviving dialogues. It includes Aegidius—which covers topics such as creation, free will, and the immortality of the soul—and Asinus, a fantastical comedy about Pontano going mad and falling in love with an ass. This is the first translation of these dialogues into English.

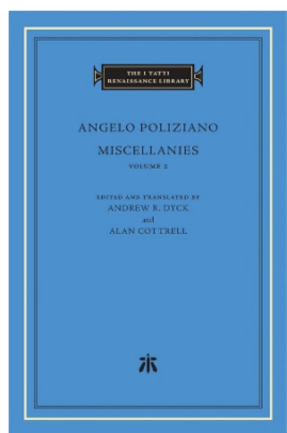

Dialogues : Volume 2 : Actius

Giovanni Gioviano Pontano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674237186

£29.95 | Hardback| 480pp. | September 2020

Dialogues, Volume 2 by Giovanni Gioviano Pontano contains both a perceptive treatment of poetic rhythm, the first full treatment of the Latin hexameter in the history of philology, and a discussion of style and method in history writing. This is a new critical edition of the Actius and the first translation into English.

Miscellanies : Volume 2

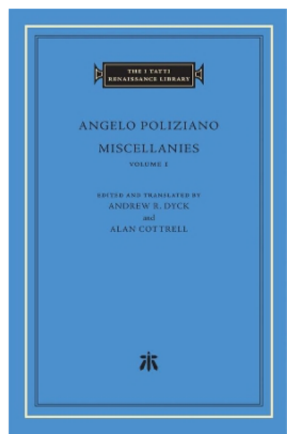

Angelo Poliziano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674244962

£29.95 | Hardback| 432pp. | March 2020

In the Miscellanies, the great Italian Renaissance scholar-poet Angelo Poliziano penned two sets of mini-essays focused on lexical or textual problems. He solves these with his characteristic deep learning and brash criticism. The two volumes presented here are the first translation of both collection into any modern language.

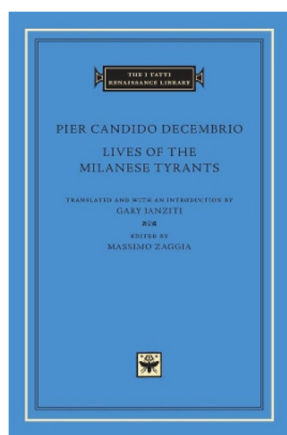

Miscellanies : Volume 1

Angelo Poliziano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674049376

£29.95 | Hardback| 672pp. | March 2020

In the Miscellanies, the great Italian Renaissance scholar-poet Angelo Poliziano penned two sets of mini-essays focused on lexical or textual problems. He solves these with his characteristic deep learning and brash criticism. The two volumes presented here are the first translation of both collection into any modern language.

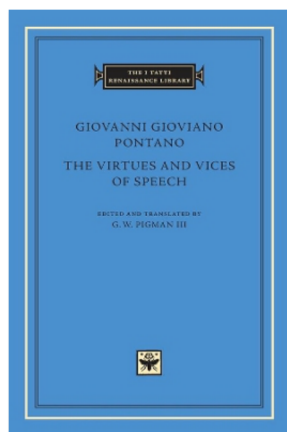

Lives of the Milanese Tyrants

Pier Candido Decembrio

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674987524

£29.95 | Hardback| 400pp. | September 2019

Lives of the Milanese Tyrants includes biographies of two dukes of Milan—the powerful Filippo Maria Visconti and the mercenary captain Francesco Sforza—written by the most important Milanese humanist of the early fifteenth century, Pier Candido Decembrio. Both works are translated into English here for the first time from new Latin texts.

The Virtues and Vices of Speech

Giovanni Gioviano Pontano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674987500

£29.95 | Hardback| 544pp. | September 2019

Giovanni Pontano, best known today as a Latin poet, also composed popular prose dialogues and essays. The De sermone, translated into English here for the first time as The Virtues and Vices of Speech, provides a moral anatomy of aspects of speech such as truthfulness, deception, flattery, gossip, bargaining, irony, wit, and ridicule.

Greek and Latin Poetry

Angelo Poliziano

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674984578

£29.95 | Hardback| 448pp. | March 2019

Angelo Poliziano (1454-1494) was one of the great scholar-poets of the Renaissance and a leading figure in the Florence during the Age of the Medici. This I Tatti edition contains all of his Greek and Latin poetry (with the exception of the Silvae in ITRL 14) translated into English for the first time.

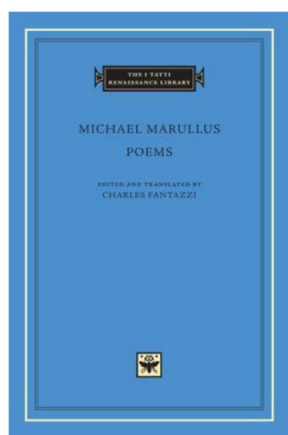

On Human Worth and Excellence

Giannozzo Manetti

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674984585

£29.95 | Hardback | 416pp. | March 2019

In On Human Worth and Excellence, celebrated diplomat, historian, philosopher, and scholar Giannozzo Manetti (1396-1459) asks: what are the moral, intellectual, and spiritual capabilities of the unique amalgam of body and soul that constitutes human nature? This I Tatti edition contains the first complete translation into English.

Poems

Michael Marullus

Harvard University Press (John Wiley & Sons Ltd) | 9780674055063

£29.95 | Hardback | 496pp. | November 2012

Michael Marullus (c. 1453/4-1500), born in Greece, began life as a mercenary soldier but became a prominent Neo-Latin poet and scholar in Italy. Later poets imitated him in vernacular love poetry, especially Ronsard. This edition contains Marullus' complete Latin poetry. All of these works appear in English translation for the first time.

